

APPLICATION IS DISMISSED BY JUSTICE FORD

Wife of Minister of Public Works Will Not Give Her Version of Sensational Story of Minister's Divorce From His First Wife

Following a hearing on Thursday morning, Mr. Justice Frank Ford dismissed an application to have Helen Mattern, L. McPherson, in the action by Mrs. Cora McPherson, first wife of the minister, to set aside the divorce obtained by him on the grounds that it was obtained by collusion and fraud. The judge said that although the wife was present at the trial when, despite assurances from both her present husband and her ex-husband when they were on the witness stand, she was counsel for Helen Mattern, she would not make the case for the defense. She failed to put in an appearance and the case closed without her confirming or denying the story told by Mrs. Cora McPherson or the minister. The judge said that Mr. Justice Ford in his judgment on more than one occasion.

"As neither Mattern nor his former wife, the present Mrs. McPherson, are parties to this action, I refrain from raising the question of the propriety of her taking part in actions throughout the period covered by the evidence," he said.

In another part of the judgment he wrote as follows: "While having regard to the course the trial took, it was to have been expected that the wife would appear."

Mr. Justice Ford also said in his judgment: "I am not satisfied or the evidence that the presumption against connivance has been rebutted," and went on to say: "I do not desire to be understood as assenting to the view that, where the direct effect of a judgment setting aside a judgment for divorce granted by our own court would be that of altering a status acquired on the faith of it, such a judgment should be given without both of the parties whose status would be so affected being made parties to the action."

It was this latter statement in the judgment which gave rise to the application before Mr. Justice Ford on Thursday. Neil D. Maclean, K.C., for Mrs. Cora McPherson, en-

TO TRANSFER "G" DIVISION OF R. C. M. P.

Following his return it was hinted that the two Arctic sub-divisions would be merged into one with headquarters at Ottawa, although no announcement was withheld until now.

The reason for the merger and transferring of headquarters is that it is felt closer touch can be maintained with the outputs by having the men administered from Ottawa. Heretofore the Eastern Sub-Arctic district has been administered from Montreal.

Superintendent Irvine came to this city about two years ago from Port Arthur where he had seen lengthy service. He is a "Mountain" of many years standing and will carry with him to Ottawa the best wishes of many friends.

LINK WITH PAST
Closing of "G" Division will remove from this city a link with the pioneer days.

From the days of Col. Griesbach (father of Maj. Gen. W. A. Griesbach) the Mounties have been closely associated with Edmonton, headquarters of "G" Division having been transferred here from Fort Saskatchewan.

In addition to carrying on with the police duties, the Police in the "G" Division have been a centre of social activities, having administered such as the drive and other diversions centering there.

VANCOUVER, Sept. 21.—An elderly man hurried into the police station. He explained he had felt a tug at his watch chain as he passed through a doorway. When he looked in his pocket, the watch was gone. A second man hurried into the station. "I've just found a watch," he said. The newcomer said he found the watch hanging to the bars in the jail. The man who had lost the watch said he was the elderly man, happy once more.

Presbyterians Of Vegreville Have Acquired Church

VEGREVILLE, Sept. 21.—Presbyterians of Vegreville have acquired the church formerly built by the Baptist congregation and have had the building, which was originally built for the Baptist congregation, thoroughly reconstructed. The old brickwork has been removed and the new structure erected in its place. The new church is a fine example of modern architecture and is well equipped for the service of the community. The acquisition of the church was a long and arduous task, but the presbyterians of Vegreville have succeeded in their endeavor.

Rev. C. E. Fisher of Edmonton, Moderator of the Synod, presided at the service held on Sunday night September 24th at the W. T. C. Church. The service was a most impressive one and the church was filled to capacity. The acquisition of the church was a long and arduous task, but the presbyterians of Vegreville have succeeded in their endeavor.

Heading guilty to a charge of being intoxicated while in charge of a car, Norman Fraser, laborer, was sentenced to serve seven days at hard labor in the Fort Saskatchewan jail by R. Macdonald, police court Thursday morning. Fraser was arrested on the charge of being intoxicated while in charge of a car, and was found guilty by the court. The sentence is a severe one, but the court felt it was necessary to impose it in order to deter others from committing similar offenses.

James Frank, who worked up and down 1024 avenue around 8 p.m. on Wednesday night, was fined $200 and costs by R. Macdonald, police court Thursday morning. The fine is a substantial one, but the court felt it was necessary to impose it in order to deter others from committing similar offenses.

A fine of $20 and costs and a suspended driver's license for three months were given Mrs. Jean Wechsler, who pleaded guilty to a charge of negligent driving, arising from an accident in which she drove her car around a wide turn and involved the motorist, Wilko merely a scrap, the court found Thursday morning.

Two University Graduates Are Wed In Camrose

Kathleen Burgess becomes
Bride of Dr. Keith
MacLean

To their many friends in university and social circles of Edmonton who know Kathleen Miller Burgess and Dr. Thomas Keith MacLean, their wedding which took place in the United church at Camrose on Wednesday morning, is of great interest. Both were well known in social and executive circles during their undergraduate years, the bride being graduated in Arts and Dr. MacLean in Medicine. Mrs. MacLean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Burgess of Camrose, and Dr. MacLean of Coleman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. MacLean of Innisfail. Rev. M. S. Kerr read the marriage ritual. Autumn colorings made an especially lovely background for the ceremony. The church was banked with autumn leaves and flanked by tall standards of gladioli and asters. In the presence of a large number of guests, the bride was in matching shade and carried an armful of white roses.

There Jean Runkin was bridesmaid, and there, a friend of her acquaintance, with a crown hat and accessories, who also carried a bouquet of crimson beauty roses. The bridegroom, who attended the bridegroom, and the fathers were Mr. Alex Burgess and Mr. J. K. Burgess of Camrose.

During the signing of the register Mrs. F. M. MacLean, sister of the bride, was accompanied by Mrs. Woodhams. The ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Burgess, receiving with Dr. MacLean, wore a model of French blue with a cascade of white flowers in silver garter, Mrs. MacLean, in silver gown, and the bride in a silver garter with a cascade of white flowers.

Later Dr. and Mrs. MacLean left on a motor trip to the mountains where their return will result in guests.

There were many out-of-town guests, amongst whom were: Mr. and Mrs. L. M. MacLean of Innisfail, Mr. H. H. MacLean of Lethbridge, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Burgess of Camrose, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Burgess of Camrose, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Burgess of Camrose, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Burgess of Camrose.

Autumn Festivals To Be Displayed By All Saints' Y.P.E.C.

Autumn, with its wealth of changing color and all its meaning of renewed activity in club and social life, brings many pleasant things to pass, and it is to be among them that the Y.P.E.C. has new frock to match the sharp tang and refreshment of the autumn mood. To be sure, what is most beautiful is the most beautiful of all, the autumn members of the Y.P.E.C. are holding a fashion parade in the Parish Hall on Friday, September 22, at 8 o'clock.

The event will officially open the affair, and Mrs. Knott will be the hostess. A most successful affair is arranged at Miss Violet Brown's home, Mrs. J. K. Burgess of Camrose, Mrs. J. K. Burgess of Camrose, Mrs. J. K. Burgess of Camrose.

Marion Powell and Miss Edith Smith will be the models. The models will be the models of the Y.P.E.C. are holding a fashion parade in the Parish Hall on Friday, September 22, at 8 o'clock.

PARIS, Sept. 21.—My new collection presents clothes that are youthful, simple and comfortable. Parisian I was guided by no other ideal than to create a perfectly feminine taste. Also, I had the desire to offer something different and new. Evening clothes always require a more elegant manner than day clothes, and in a winter collection they form a very important part of the season's necessities. I have endeavored to obtain something different, a new silhouette without having recourse to anything exotic and also without rejecting the necessary degree of femininity expected in evening gowns. There are a few unusual amount of fantasy in the new styles and here I have allowed my imagination free rein. The new style will make back and neck effect in front is designed for very formal occasions, but will be found most useful in other evening wear.

The air of simplicity stressed in even the formal evening gown is the result of years of study and could only achieve through successive changes in the mode of the new silhouette. The result of the science of cut, both prerogatives of the Haute Couture and the fashion of the day.

Another feature of evening styles is the feature of falcons at the back of the dress. The new silhouette is a masterpiece of the Haute Couture. The new silhouette is a masterpiece of the Haute Couture. The new silhouette is a masterpiece of the Haute Couture.

LONELY WIDOW? SEEK COMPANIONS

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am a widow, 32 years old, no children. My husband died two years ago. I look down sadly and see his face. I have been trying to keep house for myself and see his face. I have been trying to keep house for myself and see his face. I have been trying to keep house for myself and see his face.

Answer: If you have enough money on which to support yourself, go and live in some boarding house or hotel, but where you will have companionship and where you will not have to cook for yourself. Spend lonely evenings brooding. Food is served.

I don't know anything more pitiful than the way women burden themselves with the things of the world. They will live in some place where they will have companionship and where they will not have to cook for themselves. They will live in some place where they will have companionship and where they will not have to cook for themselves.

Nothing is more common than to hear a woman say: "I just can't break up my home." But she has no children of an age to live with her, the very thing she should do to break up her home and go where she will have companionship and where she will not have to cook for herself.

Who Are You?
Bissell
The Bissell family of Pennsylvania and Connecticut trace its origin to Normandy, France, where the name was spelled Byscille.

A middle-aged widow without children to occupy her mind and without money to put her pride in, she will become one of those forlorn old women who wander about in a daze, wondering why they are there. They will live in some place where they will have companionship and where they will not have to cook for themselves.

If you cannot afford to live in a boarding house or hotel, be sensible. Do not make your pride in your pocket and get a position where there are little children on whom you can bestow your attention, and where you can make yourself a part of the family. Do not make your pride in your pocket and get a position where there are little children on whom you can bestow your attention.

What's What
Question—To my dismay, an eye specialist whom I consulted last night told me to expect a cataract in one eye. I know that this might mean blindness, but I feel very blue about this diagnosis. I feel very blue about this diagnosis. I feel very blue about this diagnosis.

Lonella
Answer—If you wish to have your precious eyesight you should follow the oculist's instructions. People who like the comfort of rimmed glasses wear them constantly, and for some reason, comfort is one privilege which should be enjoyed at will. But for the young and socially active, a code of optical etiquette has been evolved, which prescribes spectacles for morning wear, and for sports. For the evening, either rimless or highly rimmed spectacles are correct. The old supposition that glasses are "dragging" has vanished. Thanks to progress in optical science, a man or woman who requires glasses looks younger as a result of relief from wearing the wearing of eyes.

Question—When in a train, on which side of a girl should a boy be seated?
Answer—He gives her the window seat, he takes the aisle seat.

READERS' BEAUTY QUESTIONS
Dear Miss Leeds—I am 19 years old and my hair is thin and falls out. I am a blonde. Please tell me what to do.
Answer—Thin, falling hair, if you are young, usually means that your general health is below par. Nervousness and worry as well as underweight and specially physical ailments may cause the hair to fall out. In such cases merely local treatments cannot cure the trouble. When the general health is good, but there is excessive shedding of hair, a shampoo with olive-oil, followed by a shampoo with a liquid shampoo soap with olive-oil, followed by a shampoo with a liquid shampoo soap with olive-oil.

STATES HOLDS KEY TO WORLD PEACE, CLAIM

New Zealand Statesman Believes U.S. Will Not Show Hand

TORONTO, Sept. 21.—Self-government is better than good government, is the opinion of Hon. W. D. Stewart, New Zealand statesman, now in Toronto for the British Commonwealth Relations conference. "You hear people say of India, 'They have an efficient government, at any rate. I prefer self government and more freedom.'"

Mr. Stewart, admitting to "Liberalism," thinks 19th century liberalism is dying out. "You can get a man to vote black or you can get him to vote white. Few men want to vote grey."

It was still too early to say what the Ottawa agreement could do, he thought. He had resigned from the New Zealand government because he believed a policy of government controlled inflation on the part of that dominion was contrary to the spirit of the imperial conference trade pact.

"The United States holds the key to the whole world's peace," was another of Mr. Stewart's observations. "She could improve peace if she wanted to, she is strong enough. But the United States will not show her hand, and there is no use in attempting to deny grave danger of war in the Pacific."

HOLLYWOOD GOSSIP

INTIMATE GLIMPSES AND INSIDE STUFF ON THE MOVIE COLONY

By DAN THOMAS

THE GREATEST PROBLEMS IN A SCREEN PLAYER'S LIFE IS TO FIND AN INTERESTING WAY TO PASS HIS TIME

This is a statement by a Hollywood player, and it is a statement that is repeated by many of the frequenters of rest between scenes.

The players can't go far from their act, because they never know when they may be needed. On the other hand, just sitting and waiting for the director to call would drive them crazy.

Spurred by this necessity, many different methods of killing time have been devised by the stars. Garbo usually stretches out on a couch and reads, while others often munching an ice cream cone while so doing.

Marion Davies, who is doing "Harrow" reads her fan mail while a portable photograph plays. Bing Crosby and Mae West records. Norma Shearer takes care of certain household duties such as paying bills and making necessary phone calls. Marie Dressler sleeps. Clark Gable usually sits around in his dressing room, clad only in his briefs and undergarments, and looks to the radio.

Bob Montgomery dictates letters to his secretary and plays solitaire simultaneously. Wally Beery whistles on sticks of wood. Ramon Novarro plays Mexican folk songs to his mail man.

Sally Eilers reads the latest novel. Jack Oakie goes visiting on other sets. Gary Cooper goes out in search of an ice cream soda.

EXCLUSIVE GARBO

Returning from Europe the other day, one of Ramon Novarro's first acts was to call on Greta Garbo. But Greta was working and Ramon got no further than the stage door. The situation was explained by Miss Garbo can't be interrupted. "Miss Garbo," said the attendant, "will leave your card."

HOME LIFE GAINING

No wonder the film colony is beginning to grow for excitement. All the ladies and ladies are getting married. Marie Dressler, the girl of raucous fame, Karen Morley and Curran Phillips are the most recent on the exchange list.

Cholera Infantum Causes No Alarm

HALIFAX, Sept. 21.—City health officials announced yesterday they had no reason to fear an epidemic of cholera infantum, which has claimed the lives of 30 children in Halifax since August 1.

It was agreed the death rate was higher than normal, but Dr. William D. Ford, chairman of the health department, said there was no need for alarm. He stated the belief of Dr. P. S. Campbell, chief health officer of Nova Scotia, that cholera infantum was not unusual, particularly during the warmer months.

The consumption of meals in Canada in 1932 was estimated at 1,625 million pounds, an increase of 14 million pounds over the estimate for the previous year.

INSULT CRASH WIPED ENTIRE FORTUNE AWAY

Bankrupt Sits in 64-room House With No Plans For Future

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 21.—A man who once owned a $1,000,000 fortune, and who had plans for the future, Colonel George Studebaker, son of the late George Studebaker, manufacturer of automobiles, sat in his 64-room house here yesterday, a victim of the insolvent collapse.

The 48-year-old man whose fortune four or five years ago was estimated at $1,000,000, filed a bankruptcy plan in Federal court Wednesday. He put his assets at less than $1,000 and his debts at approximately $2,500,000.

"I am getting along in years," he said when asked what he planned to do. "That was as much as he would say."

Born to wealth as the son of one of the five Studebaker brothers who made fortunes out of wagon building and later in the manufacture of automobiles, Colonel Studebaker personally increased his holdings of which Samuel Insull, Jr. was the head. When those holdings collapsed, and Insull fell to Green, the Colonel's fortune dwindled.

MURKIN CHARGE AGAINST HINDU POPPY GROWER

VICTORIA, Sept. 21.—Sacks of dried poppy heads were seized in the court room as material evidence yesterday as the trial of a Hindu named Beni on a charge of possessing morphine began. Royal Canadian Mounted Police seized a truckload of poppy heads from Beni and his brother, and this was the first case arising out of the seizure.

Stuart Henderson, defence counsel, entered a plea of not guilty. The case was adjourned until the 23rd.

H. O. Tomlinson, Dominion analyst at Vancouver, testified capsules around the poppy seed contained 8 grains of morphine per capsule, he said. The price was $1.00 per capsule, he said. The price was $1.00 per capsule, he said.

Sally Says She Secured Divorce

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 21.—Sally Eilers, actress, said yesterday she had been granted a Mexican divorce from Bill Gibson, film cowboy, from the Los Angeles court on Aug. 28.

Miss Eilers and the cowboy actor have been separated for some time and the divorce was the result of a long time in film court circles.

It was agreed the death rate was higher than normal, but Dr. William D. Ford, chairman of the health department, said there was no need for alarm. He stated the belief of Dr. P. S. Campbell, chief health officer of Nova Scotia, that cholera infantum was not unusual, particularly during the warmer months.

Shoes Halt Thief
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21.—A pair of new shoes sold at auction in jail. He and a companion are accused of stealing the shoes yesterday, buying new shoes and putting them on. But, instead of paying for them, police said, they fled. The clerk and others gave chase and a few blocks away the pair surrendered. He said his feet hurt.

AMUSEMENTS
STRAND
An enthusiastic audience yesterday at the Strand theatre greeted Cecil B. DeMille's latest Paramount screen offering "This Day and Age." The enthusiasm was evidently caught from the director himself who apparently presided over the production with a great deal of this priceless commodity. It is a long time since DeMille has dealt with the younger generation in his films, the last one being "The Godless Girl" several years ago. In "This Day and Age" the audience will find a wise and unimpaired man, but given to interesting activity.
CAPITOL
If you have ever had family trouble you will want to see "Another Language," the new American picture, featuring a jockey who literally gets away with murder. It provides not only a novel sequence of events in the story, but leads to a climax which helps this latest opus of DeMille's to enter the class of epics.

SPLENDID OPENING CARDS FOR REGINA

EDMONTON, ALBERTA SEPT. 21, 1933

Gotham Welcomes Triumphants Home

WIMCROWD GIVES TERRY ROUGH TIME

Hee McLeod, the Regina "iron horse" lived up to all that had been said in advance about his durability. He hurled both games Wednesday and will go to the mound in every other game played here. . . . The work horse of the Nationals is a very pitcher. . . . And convinced that he allowed an even six hits in each of his first two engagements. . . . But despite the fact that he was not a very good pitcher yesterday, neither. . . . Terry came through with five-hit performance that should have been enough for a week and his mates had played smarter ball for him. . . . A boomer in the ninth sent them a well-choked game. . . .

Primo "Takes It"

To prove to right fans that he really can take it, Primo Cranford stands with hands down in a Pittsburgh, Pa., ring and permits Harold Marx, his partner in an exhibition match, sock a hard body jolt.

SENATOR CLUB NEARS OBJECT WITH VICTORY

Bud Pitches 2-Hit Game For Locals

Washington led by Five-Hit Pitching of Al Crowder

But Saskatchewan Squads Even Count by 3-2 Triumph in Evening-McLeod Twirls Pair of Fine Games for Visiting Club

BY BILL LEWIS

Sensational pitching of big Bud Spiesman carried Norman Dodge's Edmonton Cubs to a one-game lead at the start of their inter-provincial rivalry amateur baseball championship series with Regina National at Renfrew Park Wednesday afternoon. . . . The Saskatchewan team had been back in the evening count to register a 3-1 victory, but squared the play-off at one win each. The series is decided on a best three-of-five basis.

McLeod made the same mistake nearly all pitchers who have come here this summer have committed—put one in the funnel for Pete McCredy. . . . And did give him a well-choked game. . . .

Washington, Sept. 21.—Behind the steady, five-hit pitching of Al Crowder, Washington crept up to within a hair of the American League pennant Wednesday by pounding out a 13-5 win over St. Louis. . . . New York's Yankees, prolonging the victory by beating Chicago again, but only to tie up the pennant race.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Behind the steady, five-hit pitching of Al Crowder, Washington crept up to within a hair of the American League pennant Wednesday by pounding out a 13-5 win over St. Louis. . . . New York's Yankees, prolonging the victory by beating Chicago again, but only to tie up the pennant race.

Having suffered only a single defeat this season, Spiesman was at the peak of his form as he faced the Regina Nationals and he had a victory. . . . Hee McLeod, in a lightning-fast hurling duel to give the locals a 3-0 win. . . . However, the Regina "iron horse" gained revenge for this setback in the second game, when his mates rang up a victory behind his twirling. . . . McLeod had a real battle on his hands, though, as Lefty Pennington, with great brilliance, made the matter of his own.

One of professional sport's busy persons, Leroy Goshalt, came down for a short holiday yesterday. . . . Golden, who has been playing baseball with Detroit the last few seasons, did not get back here last spring, staying in Winnipeg to pitch for Marjorie's new Northern pro league. . . . One of the finest twirlers ever produced in this Western country, he had a great summer with Winnipeg and there is a possibility he may be signed by Philadelphia Nationals. . . . He'll give hockey of duck-shooting before he turns East for the hockey season.

Between them, they almost blew the roof off the stadium. . . . Two new base drums and a couple more pairs of cymbals were requisitioned as the team arrived. . . . The porters launched the players onto the platform. . . . Terry, a long crier in his mouth, was the first to speak. . . . The crowd smashed through the police lines. They tossed Terry around like a double ball.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Behind the steady, five-hit pitching of Al Crowder, Washington crept up to within a hair of the American League pennant Wednesday by pounding out a 13-5 win over St. Louis. . . . New York's Yankees, prolonging the victory by beating Chicago again, but only to tie up the pennant race.

Only three days remain until the city's children season group senior teams of the Edmonton Rugby football association and the city's senior teams of the Canadian football association. . . . The teams are primed for action.
